CITINGS
TOWN AND DISTRICT

Local N

Mr and Mrs Carl Mortensen were recent visitors in Edmonton.

Mrs Lam Hughes and family are visiting with relatives in Washington.

Mr and Mrs D. W. Mayes left last week for the States, where they may make their home.

Fred F. Farney and son, Jas. K., left for Belleville, Ontario, on Tuesday.

Myrl Gee was taken to the Red Deer hospital on Saturday and operated on for appendicitis. He is doing very well.

Mr and Mrs A. A. Graham, Mrs Geo. Gordon and Miss Ingle did Edmonton honor with their presence over the week-end.

Messrs Jensen & Kleckner have opened a butcher's shop just west of the Royal Hotel, on Chipman Avenue. The new firm will receive a full share of the public patronage.

Mr and Mrs John Jenkins left on Tuesday on a visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. They will spend the winter months visiting with friends there.

Mrs Jake Beck returned home last week from the Red Deer hospital, where she underwent a severe operation. Though very weak her friends will be pleased to know that she is doing as well as can be expected.

Word has been received from Charlie Lee, who is hunting in the north country, that he has shot a large bear, weighing about 400 lbs.

There was a great attendance at the masquerade ball in the Empire Theatre on Friday evening, and a usual evening was much enjoyed. Some of the costumes were very unique in the extreme.

Chicken shooting closed on Saturday, by far too short a season. Ducks are still plentiful, and of course can be shot. Big game hunting opened on the 1st, and closes on December 15th. Already several parties have left for the north, but it will be toward the end of the month before the general trek gets going. No snow as yet, and the mild weather are big handicaps.

The Herald has been asked to state that a very unfriendly act was perpetrated at Asker church on Sunday, the 24th, when three bugle whips were cut to pieces while the owners were at worship. If people are to attend church their property ought to be protected.

Frank F. cottage in town.

Mrs T. J. West and daughter, Helen, returned from their trip to the east on Friday.

Councillor Wm. Gee has to be congratulated on the work done on the road south to the fair grounds. Mr Gee brought in his steam tractor, and along with A. D. Crawford donated the work. Just by such acts are our roads being built up and a neighborly friendship engendered.

Mr and Mrs W. Witt and son have gone to make their home in Washington. The family have lived in the Moringside district for many years, and are held in high esteem. Mr Witt is a hard working farmer, and has done well, and is taking a well-earned rest. Their friends will wish them well in their new home.

The Halloween social, given in the Baptist church, was a real success. There was a large attendance, and all were enthusiastic over the programme. The prize-winners were Mrs Allan, Misses V. Matern, J. Thomson and B. Edwards. After the program and completion, supper was served.

A meeting of the Ponoka Curling Club will be held at the town hall on Friday evening at 8.30 for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year, and transacting other important business. All curlers and prospective curlers are requested to be present. All gentlemen intending to curl this season are requested to sign the list in the Bird Drug Store as it is desirous of ascertaining the number of curlers in order that the correct number of skips may be elected at the above meeting.

Halloween was not forgotten by the young people of town. Sunday morning the citizens were inclined to be grateful for the little damage that had been done—a few gates carried away, several toothpicks upset, etc., but on the whole it was congratulations. Sunday evening the storm broke with a vengeance. Property destroyed and citizens who attempted to protect their property were annihilated. Just what will be done in the matter remains to be seen.

The Local Council of Women will meet in the Bank of Commerce chambers on Tuesday, Nov 9th, at 3 p.m. All ladies invited to attend.

The Grand Meadow U.F.W.A. local will meet at the home of Mrs G. M. Williams on Thursday, the 11th.

Would the party, who took robe and lights from my Ford car at Ferrybank hall on Friday evening, October 22, please return same and save trouble.—GEO. ZACHARY

A foot supper and first-class entertainment will be held in the Presbyterian church, Moringside, on November 15th. Supper served from 7 o'clock. Adults 50 cents, children 25 cents.

A PIMPLE REMOVER THAT NEVER FAILS

Dr. Hamilton Stands Behind
His Formula

Bad blood is always responsible for pimples, blackheads and humours. Pimples, eczema and boils are the common result. I contend that to cure these ills, the liver, kidneys and bowels must receive attention.

My remedy, known as Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandarins and Pills, invariably cures the trouble. For putting life into sleep organs, for forcing out every kind of waste and foreign matter, for making heat-stimulating blood, when you find such efficiency as in Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

In a thousand cases I have demonstrated that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the best blood purifier and skin doctor. I look upon these pills as the best blood purifier and system builder, the age, and guarantee they will cure every complaint having its origin in a weak or deranged blood supply.

If Dr. Hamilton's Pills will not cure that tired, run-down condition, if they will not change lack of force into energy and vim, then you are not cured. By creating an abundant supply of rich, nourishing blood they maintain that standard of health to which we are all aspired by those participating in the strenuous life we live in this world.

Get Dr. Hamilton's Pills and prove their merit today, 25c per box.

Love of The Wild

"They want to take this away from us," he mused, "and I don't know the value of this thing, but I'll try."

He turned, lifting his head to catch the low night-catch that flowed from the far-away, corridors of the dream-world. The forest was reaching its nocturnal song—a haunting, more spread with the notes of the wild things that roamed and hid away in their gladness after the manner of their kind. The crackling of a fox scoured from under a bush, and a thick band of yellowed stalks like the last child of a last year's wheat, thickened a broad of carriage a huddled, peeping with glances, the night.

"I guess they can't understand very well what all this means to us," Paisley turned, staring on the floor where it came to an open spot of nearly two acres, a dim light twinkled from the window of a log-house, and a last year's wheat came forward with three, yappings as they recognized the vision. The door of the house flew open, and a cat, whose front legs were raised high, came forward with three, yappings as they recognized the vision. The door of the house flew open, and a cat, whose front legs were raised high, came forward with three, yappings as they recognized the vision.

"David and Collette," she commanded, "come in here I once or I'll break your no-account necks with this hammer."

"Night, Mr. Packer," called Paisley.

"And," replied the woman, "you know? Come in here, Mr. Paisley, what I know it."

The huge form of the woman advanced and Declan's grinning face peered into the night.

"Come right on in, Mr. Paisley," invited the lord and master. An ironwood pole leaned against the floor, and on it hung a splendid coat of buck, newly killed. On the floor of the house by a smaller table, a deer head, and now being directed by the trapper.

"There, Mr. Paisley, that's about the best piece of venison I've ever had."

"How's the babies, Mr. Paisley?" asked Paisley, carefully stepping through and over the wooden floor of the house, and sitting down on a stool near the fireplace.

"All at home," said Declan, "but the afternoon ain't such bad luck, eh?"

"I'm not sure," replied Paisley, "but I'm not sure."

First, by the bright copper color of the
tea when steeped.

Second, by the ex-

Third, by the de-

The Alberta Fossil Beds

Specimen Found Which Is The Only
One of Its Kind Known to Science.

Another lot of big bones from the Red Deer Fossil Beds of Alberta has been shipped, representing the discoveries made during the past summer by a geologist party sent out by the Royal Ontario Museum. Six dinosaurs were dug up by the party,
which was headed by Professor Stenberg, and the skulls of which were sent to Toronto, where the pre-historic specimens will be cut loose and mounted during the next year or so.

One of the specimens thus brought to light is pronounced the only one of its kind yet known to science. It is a covered dinosaur with a backward prolongation of the skull, which measures fully six feet from the tip of the jaw to its extreme point. The entire length of the skeleton when completely mounted will be between twenty-five and thirty feet. This particular specimen is of a type absolutely different from any yet discovered.

THE HERALD.

Glen Fallow & Vicinity

Our nights are getting real cool. Farmers are getting ready for winter, but here's a miller winter than last year.

The sawmill on the Frenchman section is in full swing. They expect to erect a new house and barn in the near future.

The Chesterford Ladies' Institute met with Mrs. Isobell Allen on Wednesday, Oct. 20th, and enjoyed a good dinner and social time before Mrs. Allen's departure for the coast.

Mrs. Boyd, of Chesterford, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. R. L. Fleming, recently.

Cecil Duran has the "wander lust." It is impossible for him to spend Sunday evening with mother of late.

The Osterlund and Palechuk families spent a profitable as well as a pleasant time blueberrying recently.

Matt Raubala appeared before the Mounted Police in Wetaskiwin to answer for setting a fire on his farm, which had considerable damage. Mr. Raubala was the main loser, others were badly frightened.

Mr. Torven also went to Wetaskiwin on the charge of shooting chicken and partridge out of season. If the accuser got all the facts, hunters "no thanks" would be busy for a spell.

Mr. McLean, who purchased the Mackay place, is building fence and clearing land. We are glad to see some one help put this neck of the woods under cultivation.

Bert O'Dell, of Ponoka, visited the arrival of his family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neijley and son, Docum, visited the C. S. Chap. in home last Sunday.

Eino Maki is back from Southern Alberta, where he has spent the summer working. Mr. Maki looks no thinner, but has fared well physically as well as financially.

T. S. Martin, of Taber, is visiting in this country. He understands the business interests.

Mrs. Nelson entertained the Northwestern Ladies' Aid Society recently at her home.

Glen Fallow school starts Wednesday, Oct. 20. We wish the new teacher every success.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gertie and family wish to take this opportunity to thank their many friends who have shown such great kindness and sympathy to them during their recent bereavement. The death of their little son and brother,
